Slides written in markup languages have good support for mathematics and computer code

Mathematics:

$$F(x) = \int_a^b f(x)dx$$

Computer code:

import numpy

def trapezoidal(f, a, b, n=100):
    """Integrate f from a to b with 100 intervals."""
    x = numpy.linspace(a, b, n+1)
    F = (b-a)/float(n)(numpy.sum(f(x)) - 0.5(f(a) + f(b)))
    return F

In summary, this sentence headline states the most important assertion of the presentation
